DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 7 and 14-30 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 7, lines 3 and 6, "the time" and "the tone frequency" should be "time" and "tone frequency", respectively.

In claim 14, line 1, "synchronizer" should be "synchronization".

In claim 15, line 6, "the first measure" appears to read "the second measure".

In claim 16, line 3, "the tone frequency" should be "tone frequency".

In claim 17, line 7, "a first and second phase rotations" should be "first and second phase rotations".

Wherein claims 18-21 depend from claim 17.

In claim 22, line 5, "estimating" should be "estimating means".

In claim 23, line 4, "the tone frequency" should be "tone frequency".

In claim 24, line 1, "computer readable form" appears to read "computer readable medium".

In claim 25, line 2, "an initial time" should be "the initial time".

Wherein claims 26-28 depend from claim 24.

In claim 29, line 2, "a function of the with" should be "a function of".

In claim 30, line 3, "the tone frequency" should be "tone frequency".

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 8-16 and 24-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 8 lacks cooperation among the steps of setting, across time phase rotating, transforming and across frequency phase rotating. Also see claim 24 of a module for transforming and a module for across frequency phase rotating.

In claim 15 (lines 2, 4, 5 and 7), claim 24 (line 9), claim 25 (lines 2-3), claim 26 (line 1), claim 27 (line 1), and claim 29 (lines 3 and 6), the phrases "the phase rotation controller", "the channel estimator", "the pilot symbols", "the signal containing pilot symbols", and "the synchronizing of the signal by the processor" all lack antecedent basis.

In claim 24, lines 11-12, the phrase "... for extracting and estimating" is vague and indefinite since it is unclear what are extracting and estimating.

The claimed subject matter of claim 27 is not understood.

In claim 29, lines 2 and 5, the phrases "the phase rotating across time controlled as a function of the channel estimate ..." and "the phase rotating across frequency controlled as a function of the channel estimate ..." are not understood since the claimed subject matter is not recited in claim 24.

Wherein claims 9-14 and 16 depend from claim 8.

Wherein claims 28 and 30 depend from claim 24.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-6 are allowed.
5. Claims 7 and 17-23 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the objection(s) set forth in this Office action.
6. Claims 8-16 and 24-30 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fails to show or suggest that a method and apparatus of synchronization for use in a pilot assisted channel estimation orthogonal frequency multiplexing system comprising circuitry for controlling a phase rotation across time prior to a fast Fourier transformation and a phase rotation across frequency after the fast Fourier transformation as a function of a channel estimation.

Conclusion

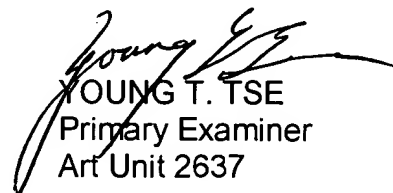

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

References Bruckert et al., Leib, Rosenlof, Crawford, and Cimini, Jr. et al. are made of record as describing a related method and apparatus of synchronization of controlling phase or frequency rotation for use in an OFDM communications system.
